On June 1, 2009, General Motors Corporation and certain direct and indirect subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") (Case Nos. 09-50026 (REG), 09-50027 (REG), 09-50028 (REG) and 09-13558 (REG), respectively).¹

On July 5, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court approved of the sale ("Sale") of substantially all of General Motors Corporation's assets pursuant to Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to NGMCO, Inc., an entity funded by the U.S. Department of the Treasury. The Sale closed on July 10, 2009.

In connection with the closing of the Sale, General Motors Corporation changed its name to "Motors Liquidation Company". NGMCO, Inc. changed its name to "General Motors Company", which will continue to operate under General Motors' historic corporate brands outside of bankruptcy.

As a result of the Sale, holders of the Notes will continue to hold claims against Motors Liquidation Company, but will not hold claims against General Motors Company, which is an independent, separate company. The Notes, like other claims against Motors Liquidation Company, will be treated in accordance with the provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code and rulings of the Bankruptcy Court.

A substantial portion of Motors Liquidation Company's assets that may be distributable to its creditors consists of 50 million shares of General Motors Company common stock and warrants to acquire 90.9 million shares of General Motors Company common stock.²

The chapter 11 cases of Motors Liquidation Company will continue in order to resolve creditors' claims, wind down operations in an orderly manner, and make distributions of Motors Liquidation Company's assets to its creditors. Updated information about Motors' Liquidation Company case can be found at www.motorsliquidation.com and updated information about the bankruptcy case, including court documents, can be found at www.motorsliquidationdocket.com.
